Continuation of 11 does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: the rejection of claims 1-24 based on the Jones patent still applies. In Jones, system controller 32 contains functions and operates in the manner of a standard micorprocessor controlled computer system (see col. 3, lines 20-24). Dependent claims 3 and 15 only require displaying notification that one of the telephones is in operation, not which of the telephones.
